

Fishers Forum

Hawaii Seafood: Past, Present and Future

WHAT: Fishers Forum

WHEN: June 29, 2010 (T)
6 to 9 P.M.

WHERE: Aloha Tower
Pier 11 Terminal

- Visit the tasting and cooking demonstration booths sponsored by KCC's Culinary Institute of the Pacific and others. Learn from renowned chefs how to prepare delicious local fish dishes yourself!
- Learn from the Honolulu Fish Auction and others about trends in the fish that we catch, buy and eat – from reef fish to today's popular pelagic species like opah and monchong
- Hear about important seafood import and labeling issues from the Hawaii Seafood Project, fishermen views on sustainable local fish & more
- Find out what to expect for fish supplies in Hawaii markets and how aquaculture figures in our future
- Learn about mercury, ciguatoxin, parasites and other health issues facing Hawaii's seafood consumers from the Hawaii Department of Health and others

Voice your opinion! Catch great information, free refreshments, validated parking and great door prizes!

Come to the Fishers Forum and learn about our seafood!

The Fishers Forum is part of the 148th Meeting of the Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council, being held June 28–July 1, 2010, at the Laniakea YWCA-Fuller Hall, 1040 Richards Street, Honolulu.

The Council manages offshore fisheries in Hawaii and other US Pacific Islands.

For more info, call (808) 522-8220, e-mail info.wpcouncil@noaa.gov or log on to www.wpcouncil.org