Code of Conduct for Hawaii Ocean Users

6 to 9 p.m. Thursday, October 20, 2011

Waikiki Aquarium, 2777 Kalakaua Ave., Honolulu

Leave the roots

In ancient Hawaii, everyone understood the papa kanawai kai, the rules and correct ways to behave on the ocean.

Come share your thoughts and learn what others are doing to bring pono conduct back among Hawaii's ocean users. Enjoy informational booths, family activities, presentations, public discussion, refreshments and more at this free event!

Share your catch!

When we all do our part to care for our resources and respect each other, we can enjoy our ocean and local fish forever.

This forum is part of the 152nd meeting of the Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council, being held Oct. 19-22, 2011, at the Laniakea YWCA-Fuller Hall, 1040 Richards St., Honolulu.
