

Magnuson and Marine Monuments: Fisheries Management and Social and Environmental Justice in the Era of Large Marine Protected Areas

October 12, 2016 (Wednesday) 6 to 9 p.m.

Ala Moana Hotel, Garden Lanai, 410 Atkinson Drive, Honolulu

AGENDA

6:00 p.m. Registration, Refreshments and Informational Tables

7:00 p.m. WELCOME

Mike Buck (emcee)
Go Fish! AM 690

INTRODUCTION

Edwin Ebisui Jr.
Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council

PANEL PRESENTATIONS

Pacific Fish Dynamics and Factors in Bigeye Tuna Catches Jeff Polovina
Ecosystem & Oceanography Program, Pacific Islands Fisheries Science Center

The Value of Marine Protected Areas for Pelagic Predators Jeff Polovina
Presenting for Meagan Dunphy-Daly, Duke University

Philosophy behind Large Marine Protected Areas William Aila Jr.
Department of Hawaiian Homelands

Economic Considerations and AOHCC Viewpoint Annelle Amaral
Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs

Indigenous Fishing Rights Viewpoint Leon Siu
Ke Aupuni O Hawaii (Kingdom of Hawaii)

Indigenous Fishing Practices Viewpoint Peter Apo
Office of Hawaiian Affairs

PANEL DISCUSSION AND PUBLIC Q&A

Edwin Ebisui Jr.

9:00 p.m. Pau

Special thanks to Nico's Pier 38 and POP Fishing and Marine for their generous prize donations.

The Fishers Forum is part of the 168th meeting of the Western Pacific Fishery Management Council, October 12 to 14, 2016, at the Laniakea YWCA, Fuller Hall, 1040 Richards Street, Honolulu. For more information: www.wpcouncil.org, email info.wpcouncil@noaa.gov or call 522-8220.