

HAWAI'I YELLOWFIN AND STRIPED MARLIN MANAGEMENT

'Ahi and striped marlin management will be on the bill at the Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council's Fishers Forum.

- View the sneak preview of 'Ahi – The Hawai'i Yellowfin Tuna about the importance of the species and research on the fish caught locally.
- Join the state, federal and public discussion on managing 'ahi.
- Learn about the concerned status of striped marlin in the Pacific and provide your input on potential rules that may be on the horizon.

The event includes informational booths, presentations and public discussion about 'ahi and striped marlin management. Enjoy door prizes and more at this family friendly event!

Photo courtesy of Wikimedia Commons

The Western and Central North Pacific stock of striped marlin is subject to overfishing and is now in an overfished condition.

This FREE public event is part of the Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council's 161st meeting being held October 21 to 23, 2014, at the Laniakea YWCA in Downtown Honolulu. For more information, call 522-8220 or go to www.wpcouncil.org.

This never before seen documentary illustrates why this particular species is a favorite among Hawai'i restaurateurs, consumers and fishermen, its life cycle and migration patterns, and how it is being managed.

WHEN:
Tuesday,
October 21
6 to 9 p.m.

WHERE:
Harbor View Center,
Pier 38, Honolulu

