Cases on appeal to NOAA Administrator. There are currently no cases pending review by the Administrator.

Cases on appeal to U.S. District Court. There are currently seven cases pending review in District Court:

In August 2014, the Administrative Law Judge issued his Initial Decisions in two cases involving U.S. purse seine vessels fishing in violation of the WCPFCIA. In the first case, involving the F/V American Triumph, the Court assessed a civil penalty of $562,068.27 for six counts of setting on or within one nautical mile of a fish aggregating device (FAD) and one count of deploying a FAD during the 2009 FAD closure in violation of the WCPFCIA. In the second case, which consolidated five cases against the F/V Ocean Encounter, F/V Ocean Conquest, F/V Sea Honor, F/V Sea Quest and F/V Pacific Ranger, the Court assessed a civil penalty of $953,053.94 for 5 counts of setting their purse seine net on whales in violation of the Marine Mammal Protection Act, 10 counts of setting on or within one nautical mile of a FAD and two counts of deploying FADs during the 2009 FAD closure in violation of the WCPFCIA. The Respondents sought discretionary review by the NOAA Administrator in both cases. The Administrator denied review and adopted the ALJ's Initial Decisions in both cases as the Final Decision. The Respondents appealed these cases to the U.S. District Court in D.C.

PI1101523, F/V PACIFIC RANGER - Respondents were charged with five counts of violating the Marine Mammal Protection Act by taking a marine mammal through knowingly setting purse seine gear on a whale, and one count of violating the WCPFCIA. Respondents were assessed a total penalty of $149,250.00. After a fully contested administrative hearing, the ALJ found the Agency had proved its case against Respondents on all counts and imposed a total penalty of $127,000. Respondents sought discretionary review by the NOAA Administrator. The NOAA Administrator denied review and adopted the ALJ's Initial Decision as the Final Decision. Respondents appealed this case to the U.S. District Court in D.C.
