

Western Pacific
Regional Fishery
Management
Council

Hawaiian Islands Community Consultations

Fishing Community Outreach

Navigating Change

The Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council is organizing meetings to engage directly with Hawaii's fishermen. The goal is to listen to and document their observations on ecosystem changes and challenges they face, including issues related to infrastructure, access, shark depredation, and markets. This initiative is part of a two-year project aimed at strengthening collaboration with the fishing community.

Dates: Maui - 22 April 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Maui Arts & Cultural Center - Haynes Meeting Room 1 Cameron Way, Kahului, HI 96732

Lanai - 23 April 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Lanai Filipino Clubhouse 450 Jacaranda Ave. Lanai City, HI 96763

Moloka'i - 24 April 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Department of Hawaiian Home Lands and the Office of Hawaiian Affairs Conference Room 600 Maunaloa Highway, Building D in Kaunakakai

Kaua'i - 28 April 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Lihue Community Center 3353 Eono St, Lihue, HI 96766

Oahu - 29 April 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Wai'anae Intermediate School Cafeteria 85-626 Farrington Hwy, Waianae, HI 96792

Oahu - 30 April 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Ke'ehi Lagoon Memorial Tommy Kakesako Hall 2685 N Nimitz Hwy, Honolulu, HI 96819

Community Meeting Agenda

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Welcome, Introductions, Community Giveaways | Alex Min |
| 2. Overview of the Community Consultation Effort | Mark Mitsuyasu |
| 3. Fishers Observations & Local Knowledge Overview | Clay Tam |
| 4. Community Testimonials | Alex Min |
| 5. Q&A / Closing Discussion | Clay Tam |
| 6. Wrap-Up & Appreciation | Mark Mitsuyasu |

For more information, contact:

mark.mitsuyasu@wpcouncil.org, zach.yamada@wpcouncil.org

www.wpcouncil.org

Facilitated by Pacific Islands Fisheries Group (PIFG) Fishtoday.org